

IN THE BASEBALL WORLD.

BOTH LOCAL TEAMS HAVE AN EXPENSIVE HOLIDAY.

ST. LOUIS BEATS THE NEW YORKS TWICE AND PITTSBURG DO LIKEWISE TO BROOKLYNS—OTHER NATIONAL LEAGUE CLUBS BREAK EVEN—AMERICAN LEAGUE CONTESTS.

The double games in the National League yesterday were costly for the two local teams. The New Yorks were weak in the field and so kept home twice, while the Brooklyns met the same fate at the hands of the Pittsburghs, who did not have their full strength out. In Boston the home team and the Cincinnati broke even. The Chicagoans and Philadelphians each won a game.

MORNING GAMES.

St. Louis, 6; New York, 4.

Pittsburgh, 4; Brooklyn, 3.

Boston, 7; Cincinnati, 6.

AFTERNOON GAMES.

St. Louis, 8; New York, 2.

Pittsburgh, 8; Brooklyn, 7.

Cincinnati, 7; Boston, 4.

Philadelphia, 11; Chicago, 3 (first game).

Chicago, 6; Philadelphia, 1 (second game).

THE RECORD.

Per.

Gates, 40; L. Clegg, 32; Clark, 31; H. P. A. E., 49.

Brooklyn, 55; 28; 73; Cincinnati, 55; 57; 61; 60.

Brooklyn, 55; 52; St. Louis, 50; 61; 49; 50.

Boston, 56; 51; 54; Philadelphia, 50; 51; 53; 55.

Chicago, 50; 51; 53; 55; 57; 59; 60; 61; 63.

St. Louis, 4; NEW YORK, 4—MORNING GAME.

The New York team's Labor Day contest at the Polo Grounds yesterday was a creditable display of skill work, both running and fielding, fielding that two defeats resulted. The St. Louis Cardinals played the better team and individual work that had organized itself to it and was at its best in regard to the haphazard, up-in-the-air playing of the New Yorks. For a holiday and considering the recent brace of the locals, the West the attendances were below expectations.

The morning game was on New York's part a feast of hits, but a failure of the bats in the first game, which was lost in the sixth. Brooklyn, 8; Harlan, 7; down by 1. The St. Louis team bunched in the fifth inning. St. Louis' fielding was as smooth as velvet and likewise unsullied by errors.

The visitors played with an error again, but the New York team was nothing out of the ordinary to them. They not only bunted hard, but their bunting was a spic and span, adding zest to their attack. The St. Louis batters made their own brand of base runners, and the New Yorks misjudged on the bunting as if such tactics were as strange to them as the professionals. The St. Louis batters bunched in the fifth inning. St. Louis' pitcher, while he had shown nice and effective command in the way he handled his set-ups.

This game also brought out its quota of snarling at the umpires. Dunn, Brasher and O'Neill were the chief visitors, and O'Neill, while O'Neill's opinion was glaring. He interfered with a base runner, and when Umpire Latham allowed the runner to score on the play, the visitors and another snarled at the shoulder and yanked him around, jawing at him the while. Latham refused to be bullied and went ahead calmly with his work, though his leniency in not calling off the out of the game was misplaced.

ST. LOUIS, 1; NEW YORK, 4—AFTERNOON GAME.

Per.

Gates, 40; L. Clegg, 32; Clark, 31; H. P. A. E., 49.

Brooklyn, 55; 28; 73; Cincinnati, 55; 57; 61; 60.

Brooklyn, 55; 52; St. Louis, 50; 61; 49; 50.

Boston, 56; 51; 54; Philadelphia, 50; 51; 53; 55.

Chicago, 50; 51; 53; 55; 57; 59; 60; 61; 63.

St. Louis, 4; NEW YORK, 4—MORNING GAME.

The New York team's Labor Day contest at the Polo Grounds yesterday was a creditable display of skill work, both running and fielding, fielding that two defeats resulted. The St. Louis Cardinals played the better team and individual work that had organized itself to it and was at its best in regard to the haphazard, up-in-the-air playing of the New Yorks. For a holiday and considering the recent brace of the locals, the West the attendances were below expectations.

The morning game was on New York's part a feast of hits, but a failure of the bats in the first game, which was lost in the sixth. Brooklyn, 8; Harlan, 7; down by 1. The St. Louis team bunched in the fifth inning. St. Louis' fielding was as smooth as velvet and likewise unsullied by errors.

The visitors played with an error again,

but the New York team was nothing out of the ordinary to them. They not only bunted hard, but their bunting was a spic and span, adding zest to their attack.

The St. Louis batters made their own brand of base runners, and the New Yorks misjudged on the bunting as if such tactics were as strange to them as the professionals.

The St. Louis batters bunched in the fifth inning. St. Louis' pitcher, while he had shown nice and effective command in the way he handled his set-ups.

This game also brought out its quota of snarling at the umpires. Dunn, Brasher and O'Neill were the chief visitors, and O'Neill, while O'Neill's opinion was glaring. He interfered with a base runner, and when Umpire Latham allowed the runner to score on the play, the visitors and another snarled at the shoulder and yanked him around, jawing at him the while. Latham refused to be bullied and went ahead calmly with his work, though his leniency in not calling off the out of the game was misplaced.

ST. LOUIS, 1; NEW YORK, 4—AFTERNOON GAME.

Per.

Gates, 40; L. Clegg, 32; Clark, 31; H. P. A. E., 49.

Brooklyn, 55; 28; 73; Cincinnati, 55; 57; 61; 60.

Brooklyn, 55; 52; St. Louis, 50; 61; 49; 50.

Boston, 56; 51; 54; Philadelphia, 50; 51; 53; 55.

Chicago, 50; 51; 53; 55; 57; 59; 60; 61; 63.

St. Louis, 4; NEW YORK, 4—MORNING GAME.

The New York team's Labor Day contest at the Polo Grounds yesterday was a creditable display of skill work, both running and fielding, fielding that two defeats resulted. The St. Louis Cardinals played the better team and individual work that had organized itself to it and was at its best in regard to the haphazard, up-in-the-air playing of the New Yorks. For a holiday and considering the recent brace of the locals, the West the attendances were below expectations.

The morning game was on New York's part a feast of hits, but a failure of the bats in the first game, which was lost in the sixth. Brooklyn, 8; Harlan, 7; down by 1. The St. Louis team bunched in the fifth inning. St. Louis' fielding was as smooth as velvet and likewise unsullied by errors.

The visitors played with an error again,

but the New York team was nothing out of the ordinary to them. They not only bunted hard, but their bunting was a spic and span, adding zest to their attack.

The St. Louis batters made their own brand of base runners, and the New Yorks misjudged on the bunting as if such tactics were as strange to them as the professionals.

The St. Louis batters bunched in the fifth inning. St. Louis' pitcher, while he had shown nice and effective command in the way he handled his set-ups.

This game also brought out its quota of snarling at the umpires. Dunn, Brasher and O'Neill were the chief visitors, and O'Neill, while O'Neill's opinion was glaring. He interfered with a base runner, and when Umpire Latham allowed the runner to score on the play, the visitors and another snarled at the shoulder and yanked him around, jawing at him the while. Latham refused to be bullied and went ahead calmly with his work, though his leniency in not calling off the out of the game was misplaced.

ST. LOUIS, 1; NEW YORK, 4—AFTERNOON GAME.

Per.

Gates, 40; L. Clegg, 32; Clark, 31; H. P. A. E., 49.

Brooklyn, 55; 28; 73; Cincinnati, 55; 57; 61; 60.

Brooklyn, 55; 52; St. Louis, 50; 61; 49; 50.

Boston, 56; 51; 54; Philadelphia, 50; 51; 53; 55.

Chicago, 50; 51; 53; 55; 57; 59; 60; 61; 63.

St. Louis, 4; NEW YORK, 4—MORNING GAME.

The New York team's Labor Day contest at the Polo Grounds yesterday was a creditable display of skill work, both running and fielding, fielding that two defeats resulted. The St. Louis Cardinals played the better team and individual work that had organized itself to it and was at its best in regard to the haphazard, up-in-the-air playing of the New Yorks. For a holiday and considering the recent brace of the locals, the West the attendances were below expectations.

The morning game was on New York's part a feast of hits, but a failure of the bats in the first game, which was lost in the sixth. Brooklyn, 8; Harlan, 7; down by 1. The St. Louis team bunched in the fifth inning. St. Louis' fielding was as smooth as velvet and likewise unsullied by errors.

The visitors played with an error again,

but the New York team was nothing out of the ordinary to them. They not only bunted hard, but their bunting was a spic and span, adding zest to their attack.

The St. Louis batters made their own brand of base runners, and the New Yorks misjudged on the bunting as if such tactics were as strange to them as the professionals.

The St. Louis batters bunched in the fifth inning. St. Louis' pitcher, while he had shown nice and effective command in the way he handled his set-ups.

This game also brought out its quota of snarling at the umpires. Dunn, Brasher and O'Neill were the chief visitors, and O'Neill, while O'Neill's opinion was glaring. He interfered with a base runner, and when Umpire Latham allowed the runner to score on the play, the visitors and another snarled at the shoulder and yanked him around, jawing at him the while. Latham refused to be bullied and went ahead calmly with his work, though his leniency in not calling off the out of the game was misplaced.

ST. LOUIS, 1; NEW YORK, 4—AFTERNOON GAME.

Per.

Gates, 40; L. Clegg, 32; Clark, 31; H. P. A. E., 49.

Brooklyn, 55; 28; 73; Cincinnati, 55; 57; 61; 60.

Brooklyn, 55; 52; St. Louis, 50; 61; 49; 50.

Boston, 56; 51; 54; Philadelphia, 50; 51; 53; 55.

Chicago, 50; 51; 53; 55; 57; 59; 60; 61; 63.

St. Louis, 4; NEW YORK, 4—MORNING GAME.

The New York team's Labor Day contest at the Polo Grounds yesterday was a creditable display of skill work, both running and fielding, fielding that two defeats resulted. The St. Louis Cardinals played the better team and individual work that had organized itself to it and was at its best in regard to the haphazard, up-in-the-air playing of the New Yorks. For a holiday and considering the recent brace of the locals, the West the attendances were below expectations.

The morning game was on New York's part a feast of hits, but a failure of the bats in the first game, which was lost in the sixth. Brooklyn, 8; Harlan, 7; down by 1. The St. Louis team bunched in the fifth inning. St. Louis' fielding was as smooth as velvet and likewise unsullied by errors.

The visitors played with an error again,

but the New York team was nothing out of the ordinary to them. They not only bunted hard, but their bunting was a spic and span, adding zest to their attack.

The St. Louis batters made their own brand of base runners, and the New Yorks misjudged on the bunting as if such tactics were as strange to them as the professionals.

The St. Louis batters bunched in the fifth inning. St. Louis' pitcher, while he had shown nice and effective command in the way he handled his set-ups.

This game also brought out its quota of snarling at the umpires. Dunn, Brasher and O'Neill were the chief visitors, and O'Neill, while O'Neill's opinion was glaring. He interfered with a base runner, and when Umpire Latham allowed the runner to score on the play, the visitors and another snarled at the shoulder and yanked him around, jawing at him the while. Latham refused to be bullied and went ahead calmly with his work, though his leniency in not calling off the out of the game was misplaced.

ST. LOUIS, 1; NEW YORK, 4—AFTERNOON GAME.

Per.

Gates, 40; L. Clegg, 32; Clark, 31; H. P. A. E., 49.

Brooklyn, 55; 28; 73; Cincinnati, 55; 57; 61; 60.

Brooklyn, 55; 52; St. Louis, 50; 61; 49; 50.

Boston, 56; 51; 54; Philadelphia, 50; 51; 53; 55.

Chicago, 50; 51; 53; 55; 57; 59; 60; 61; 63.

St. Louis, 4; NEW YORK, 4—MORNING GAME.

The New York team's Labor Day contest at the Polo Grounds yesterday was a creditable display of skill work, both running and fielding, fielding that two defeats resulted. The St. Louis Cardinals played the better team and individual work that had organized itself to it and was at its best in regard to the haphazard, up-in-the-air playing of the New Yorks. For a holiday and considering the recent brace of the locals, the West the attendances were below expectations.

The morning game was on New York's part a feast of hits, but a failure of the bats in the first game, which was lost in the sixth. Brooklyn, 8; Harlan, 7; down by 1. The St. Louis team bunched in the fifth inning. St. Louis' fielding was as smooth as velvet and likewise unsullied by errors.

The visitors played with an error again,

but the New York team was nothing out of the ordinary to them. They not only bunted hard, but their bunting was a spic and span, adding zest to their attack.

The St. Louis batters made their own brand of base runners, and the New Yorks misjudged on the bunting as if such tactics were as strange to them as the professionals.

The St. Louis batters bunched in the fifth inning. St. Louis' pitcher, while he had shown nice and effective command in the way he handled his set-ups.

This game also brought out its quota of snarling at the umpires. Dunn, Brasher and O'Neill were the chief visitors, and O'Neill, while O'Neill's opinion was glaring. He interfered with a base runner, and when Umpire Latham allowed the runner to score on the play, the visitors and another snarled at the shoulder and yanked him around, jawing at him the while. Latham refused to be bullied and went ahead calmly with his work, though his leniency in not calling off the out of the game was misplaced.

ST. LOUIS, 1; NEW YORK, 4—AFTERNOON GAME.

Per.

Gates, 40; L. Clegg, 32; Clark, 31; H. P. A. E., 49.

Brooklyn, 55; 28; 73; Cincinnati, 55; 57; 61; 60.

Brooklyn, 55; 52; St. Louis, 50; 61; 49; 50.

Boston, 56; 51; 54; Philadelphia, 50; 51; 53; 55.

Chicago, 50; 51; 53; 55; 57; 59; 60; 61; 63.

St. Louis, 4; NEW YORK, 4—MORNING GAME.

The New York team's Labor Day contest at the Polo Grounds yesterday was a creditable display of skill work, both running and fielding, fielding that two defeats resulted. The St. Louis Cardinals played the better team and individual work that had organized itself to it and was at its best in regard to the haphazard, up-in-the-air playing of the New Yorks. For a holiday and considering the recent brace of the locals, the West the attendances were below expectations.

The morning game was on New York's part a feast of hits, but a failure of the bats in the first game, which was lost in the sixth. Brooklyn, 8; Harlan, 7; down by 1. The St. Louis team bunched in the fifth inning. St. Louis' fielding was as smooth as velvet and likewise unsullied by errors.

The visitors played with an error again,

but the New York team was nothing out of the ordinary to them. They not only bunted hard, but their bunting was a spic and span, adding zest to their attack.

The St. Louis batters made their own brand of base runners, and the New